Death of State Senator Young.

Houston, Mo., Oct. 15.—J. D. Young, State Senator from the Twenty-second District, died at his home in this city today, after a long illness of consumption. He was 52 years old. Senator Young had been prominent in Republican politics in South Missouri for many years. He was an attorney, and, although this county is Democratic, he had been elected Representative, Collector and Prosecuting Attorney of this county.

Four years ago he defeated Senator

James Orenard in this district by 335 votes on the bond issue, the district being Democratic by about 1,000. Two years ago he was prominently mentioned as the Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, but on account of ill health he declined to make the race.

Senator Young was recognized as a substantial citizen, and was popular in all parties. He was a member of the Christian Church, was a member of the K. of P. Lodge and a Modern Woodman.

Friendly Advice

What is cheaper than a word of good advice? Yet how often if followed it proves of priceless value as it did in the case of Wm. Evans, 817 Market St. Scranton, Pa.

Mr. Evans had been suffering for some time from an affection of the stomach. His digestion had become so impaired that his food would ferment and cause him no end of trouble. His health failed rapidly and each day deepened his despair.

His friends noticed and remarked at his decline. One of them told him of the medicine with which L. T. Cooper the philanthropist has been curing diseases. "It cured me," said his friend, "and I would advise you to try it."

The words proved an invaluable suggestion to Mr. Evans, who, in speaking of his experience recently said: "I had tried everything I knew or heard of and was much discouraged when my friend spoke those words. He was so enthusiastic, however, that I purchased a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery and began its use. I found it all he claimed and the greatest stomach medicine I ever heard of. My stomach trouble has disappeared and my digestion is perfect. I can eat anything I feel like and enjoy it."

Cooper's New Discovery cures stomach and kidney trouble, catarrh, deafness, rheumatism and blood diseases and sells for one dollar per bottle.

Cooper's Quick Relief sells for fifty cents. At E. M. Laakman's, where the medicines are sold in this city, it is said that the demand for them is phenomenal.

Prohibition Ticket and Platform.

At the request of some of our Prohibition friends we publish below their State ticket and platform:

Supreme Judge, Long Term, JONATHAN P. ORR, Holden.

Supreme Judge, Short Term, AUSTIN F. BITTS, Springfield.

Superintendent Public Schools, MISS ROENA E. SHANKER, Jackson.

Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner, ALBERT B. WHAY, Union Star, Rtd.

PLATFORM

Adopted at Cameron Convention, June 14, 1906.

The Prohibition party of Missouri in convention assembled in the city of Cameron, June 14, 1906, invoking God's divine guidance, makes the following declaration of principles:

1. In harmony with the National Prohibition party, and with publicists generally, we proclaim the liquor traffic the greatest evil of the age, and the trusted ally of all other great evils, especially Sunday desecration, gambling, and the social evil, therefore we demand that the manufacture, importation and traffic in beverage alcohol be prohibited by the state and national governments, and the general government ought to recognize the authority and concede the equity of the several states by refusing to issue Federal tax receipts in Prohibition territory.

2. We favor the initiative and referendum; the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people; and the ballot in the hands of citizens of the state regardless of sex, who are mentally and morally qualified to exercise and appreciate that right.

3. We believe that the tariff question should be taken out of partisan politics and put under control of an inter-partisan commission, and that when articles of manufacture are found to be in the hands of or under the control of trusts, that the President and this commission be directed to remove all tariff from such articles.

We commend the efforts of the national government and the attorney general of Missouri in trying to check the ravages of the trusts, and in bringing to the bar of justice their managers. But we would call the attention of General Hadley to violations of the Corrupt Practices Act by certain brewers and politicians, and demand that he at once proceed against them according to law. We also demand that the liquor laws be enforced against railroads and dining cars operating in this state.

We call attention of such officials to the fact that the liquor trust is the oldest, greatest and the most menacing of all the trusts, and that if these offenders be called to the bar of justice, that much relief will result to the entire country.

4. We favor the establishment of the Parcel Post, the best that may be devised from the experience of the countries that have tried it, and believe in the establishment of Postal and Public School savings institutions.

5. We favor economical administration of government in all its departments, and rigid enforcement of all laws, and commend Governor Folk for his manly stand in the enforcement of the Sunday law, and call attention of the public to the great benefits derived from this enforcement. If so much good can come from Prohibition of the liquor traffic one day in the week, under the most adverse circumstances, we hold that entire prohibition in the State and Nation would result in infinitely greater benefits.

6. Until we go out of the drunkard-making business in Missouri, we shall have an over supply of inebriates to care for, and to that end we demand the establishment of an Inebriate Asylum by Missouri.

We favor a penal system, under the operations of which convict labor shall be withdrawn from unfair competition with honest labor, and the proceeds of the labor of such unfortunate shall accrue to their dependents rather than to the benefit of a few favored contractors.

8. We favor a liberal policy in the matter of building public roads, and believe that an appropriation of $1.00 per capita to the rural sections of the State from the State government, supplemented by an appropriation from our general government properly expended would prove a great blessing to all our material interests, this money to be appropriated and paid out only as the work progresses, and we oppose the building of roads from the license money of the railroads.

9. We favor a uniform passenger fare of 2 cents on railroads, and demand that discriminations against us by freight tariffs be removed, and that the railroad and warehouse commission be called upon to serve the interests of all the people of our state.

10. We favor the endowment of all the State and Elemenary institutions, so that they may be removed from the biennial attacks of partisan politics, and demand that the inheritance tax be distributed equitably among all these institutions.

11. We appeal to all fair-minded legislators of all parties in our State to amend the laws, so that minority parties may have the right to cast their ballots freely and untrammelled, and we call upon Governor Folk to incorporate this appeal in his message to the next General Assembly of the State.

12. We respectfully request the next General Assembly of the State of Missouri to submit to the voters of the State an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture, importation and sale of beverage alcohol within the State.

We believe that what ought to be done can be done, and in order to the accomplishment of the Divine purpose must be done, and declare our unwavering faith in the final triumph of our cause; and to hasten the day of victory we invite all lovers of home and country enjoying the right of franchise to join us in the support of these principles at the ballot box.

Obituary

Mrs. Kate Hawkins, wife of Angus Hawkins, died at her home near DeLassus on Tuesday, October 23, 1906, at 3:05 p. m., aged 63 years, 9 months and nine days. Her maiden name was Miller and she was married to her now bereaved husband in 1861. To them seven children were born, three of whom are living. Mrs. Hawkins was a devoted wife and loving mother, and her sorrowing husband and children have the sincere sympathy of all their neighbors in their bereavement. Her mortal remains were laid at rest in the Doe Run cemetery.

Died, on Saturday, October 13th., of consumption, Mrs. Lillian Fleming, aged 19 years, 3 months and 9 days. Lillian was born at Pilot Knob, Mo., where her parents, Wm. and Mary Foster, then resided, on July 4, 1887. At an early age she united with the Pleasant Valley United Baptist Church and was baptized by Elder Carter Martin. Funeral services were held at the home on Sunday at 4 p. m. The large crowd in attendance compelled an open air service, conducted by Rev. LaTour of Bismarck. She leaves an infant daughter, husband, brother, father and mother to mourn her loss.

H. J. L.

Sister Ruth Frances Falkner (nee Parks) died at her home in Doe Run Oct. 5th, 1906. She was born February 13, 1871, and was aged 35 years, 7 months and 22 days. "Sister Fannie," as she was called, professed faith in Christ and joined Peddleton Church at Doe Run at about the age of 16 years, of which she lived an earnest and consistent member up to the time of her death. Her hope was in Jesus, and she told her relatives, ready and willing to die. She leaves a bereaved companion, three little children, a father and a number of near relatives to mourn her loss. The writer preached her funeral at the old church to a large and attentive congregation, after which the remains were consigned to the tomb in the Doe Run cemetery, to which they were followed by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. We know that while the kindred ties of her earthly family are broken she has relations in the Heavenly family that will never be severed. May God's love be upon all the bereaved.

ELD. W. E. COFFER.

The Christian Church at Charleston is to be completed this week, and is said to be quite a handsome building.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, no medicine can be absorbed, causing head ache, biliousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetables.
